Runaways

When they were younger, Nico Minoru, Chase Stein, Gertrude Yorkes, Karolina Dean, Molly Hayes and Alex Wilder became friends through circumstance: hanging out once a year every year while their parents had what they claimed was a dinner party. Then trauma made them a family: after discovering their parents were actually murderous super villains, they ran away. The Runaways learned to use powers and resources inherited from their parents, and returned to defeat them. The kids won, but they didn't all survive.

Two years after Gert's murder, Chase time-traveled to the moment of her death and rescued her. So she's alive, but everyone else grew up, moved on, or worse. Back in the day, they met a boy named Victor who was built by super villain Ultron to follow in his evil footsteps. The Runaways helped Victor avoid that destiny, but they couldn't help him avoid death. His head was returned to the Runaways but they don't know that it's in the process of rebooting. Karolina is staying in college instead of rejoining her friends. The group's next stop is to get Molly, who's living with her grandmother.

Victor Mancha
is dead.*

Or, alternately,
Victor Mancha
was never alive.

He thought he was...

You've heard of Pinocchio? Well, Victor Mancha is Pinocchio in reverse.

He was born
a real boy.

Then step by step,
fall by fall, he realized
he was nothing but a puppet.

Poor little wooden head.

*Victor was killed by the Vision's late wife, Virginia, in VISION vol. 2 #11. -Nick

Have you seen my Fistagons?

Chase. We're going to Molly's grandma's house-- you don't need a weapon.

You're bringing your staff!

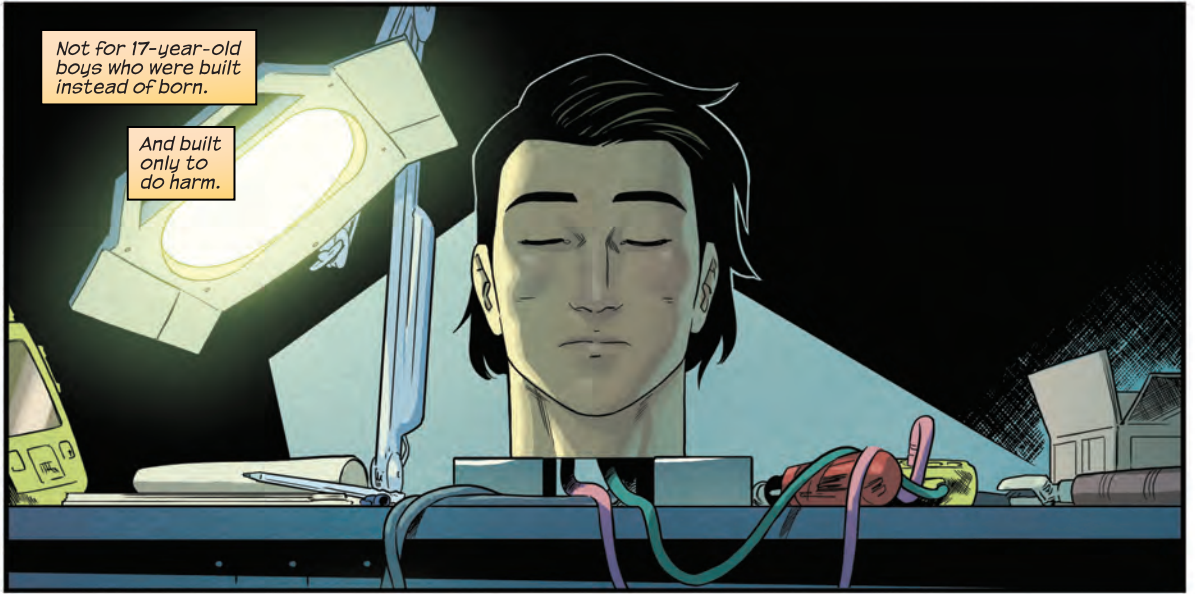

Only because it lives inside my body!

Well, I'm bringing my dinosaur. Everywhere. From now on. Sucks to your time/space norms.

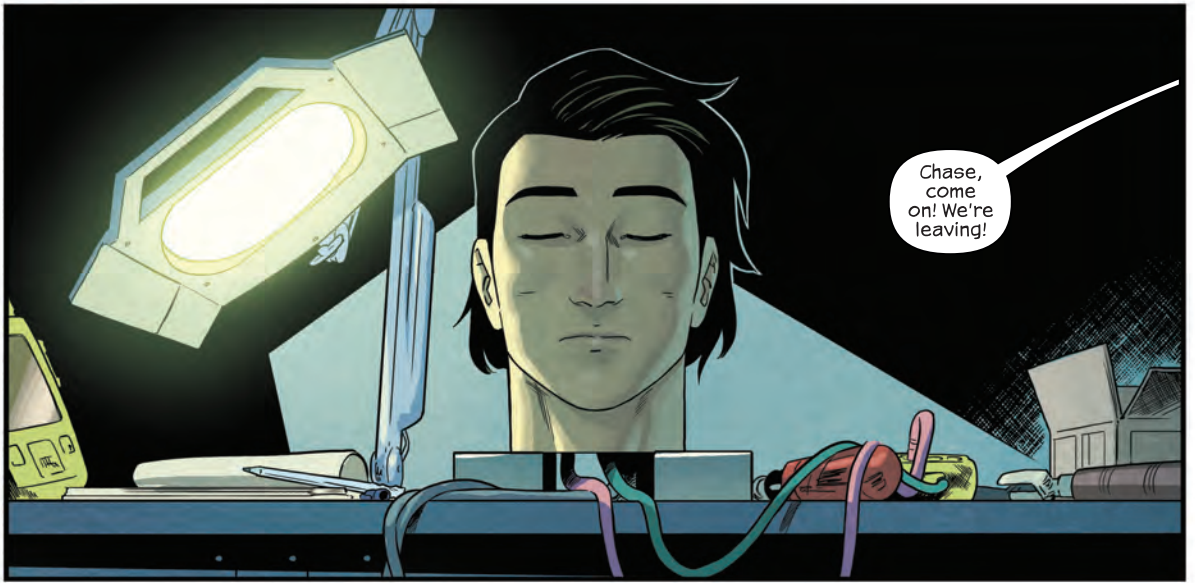

Living, dying, resurrection...

Those are for people, not puppets.

Not for 17-year-old boys who were built instead of born.

And built only to do harm.

Chase, come on! We're leaving!

Just a sec-- I forgot Victor!

Sorry, dude.

Molly!

Coming, Grandma!
