

The book is called Salem's Lot, Itsy, not Look, Vampires Are Killing Everyone.

It focuses on people in the town first.

You know, for color.

I guess. I just can't stand this romantic stuff.

You mean "romantic." "Romantic" isn't a word.

Whatever, it's just a big yuckfest.

But Itsy, without the sweet bits, the bad bits will never seem as bad.

So it's like a trap? The writer guy makes us feel all happy before he makes us scared?

Exactly.

That's sort of mean...

...I love it.

That's my girl!

Time for sleep. It's way past your bedtime, little one.

Have you read this story before, Mama? Do the vampires win?

BZZT
BZZT

Hold that thought, peanut. Mama's gettin' a call.

It's Alice. She's upset about something.

Such a good little empath! But let's remember, Auntie Alice is always upset about something!

Hehe, it's true! Goodnight, Mama.

Hell--

Why didn't you answer the phone right away?

Sigh
