Not long ago, the Avengers invited three younger heroes to join their ranks: Ms. Marvel, Nova and Miles Morales. But in the wake of the second super hero civil war, the teenage Avengers became disillusioned with the team. They broke off to form the Champions, a group of young heroes determined to find a better way to change the world.

But a threat from Counter-Earth has drawn the two teams together once more. A meteor crashed into Kentucky, setting off a vibration that caused objects and people to start phasing out of sync with reality. The creature who emerged from the meteor gave the assembled heroes a grim warning: that the vibration had already done its work, and the planet was now prepared for the Ascension. Elsewhere, the reality shift claimed its first victims, Falcon and Viv, who were transported unexpectedly to Counter-Earth!
